

Queensland Clinical Senate

Clinician leadership. Consumer collaboration. Better care.

A climate for change in healthcare

Grand Windsor Ballroom, Pullman Brisbane King George Square,
Brisbane, Meanjin

5pm – 8.55pm, Thursday 9 Nov 2023

1700	Registration and networking
1800	Welcome to Country Aunty Kathryn Fisher
1810	Senate welcome and update on past meetings Dr Tanya Kelly, Chair, Queensland Clinical Senate
1830	Deputy Director-General Queensland update Dr Helen Brown, Deputy Director-General, Clinical Excellence Queensland
1840	The case for a focus on climate change (15 mins) Professor Tony Capon, Director, Monash Sustainable Development Institute & Professor of Planetary Health, Monash University
1855	First Nations connection to land and sustainability (10mins) Lynda Maybanks, Managing Director, Wurrinyah First Nations Conservation Services
1905	The case for why healthcare needs to address and respond to climate change, from a consumer perspective (10 mins) Janette Moore, Consumer Representative
1915	Dinner (dessert to follow at 1955)

1955	The Queensland Health Climate Risk Strategy (10 mins) Kevin Phillips, Director, Office of Hospital Sustainability, Queensland Public Health & Scientific Services, Queensland Health
2005	Sustainability and the Queensland Health Capital Program (10 mins) Rodney Lobwein, Senior Director, Critical Infrastructure and ICT, Health Capital Division, Queensland Health
2015	Clinician Perspective – building environmental resilience in the workforce (10 mins) Professor Lynne Madden, Public Health Physician, Notre Dame University, Sydney (videoconference)
2025	Panel discussion (Facilitator: Dr Tanya Kelly) (25 mins) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Professor Tony Capon, Director, Monash Sustainable Development Institute & Professor of Planetary Health - Lynda Maybanks, Managing Director, Wurrinyah First Nations Conservation Services - Janette Moore, Consumer Representative - Professor Lynne Madden, Public Health Physician & Professor of Population and Planetary Health, Notre Dame University, Sydney (videoconference) - Stephen Robertson, Board Director, West Moreton Hospital and Health Service & Former Minister for Health (2005 – 2009) (videoconference)
2050	Looking ahead – day two of the Senate meeting Dr Tanya Kelly, Chair, Queensland Clinical Senate
2055	Meeting close

Queensland Clinical Senate

Clinician leadership. Consumer collaboration. Better care.

A climate for change in healthcare

Grand Windsor Ballroom, Pullman Brisbane King George Square,
Brisbane, Meanjin

8am – 3.10pm, Friday 10 November 2023

0730	Check in
0800	Agenda and housekeeping Dr Tanya Kelly, Chair, Queensland Clinical Senate Session one: The Impact of climate change on health and healthcare Session Facilitator: A/Prof Jeffrey Rowland, Chair, Queensland General Medicine Clinical Network / Clinical Director General Medicine & Acute Sub-Specialties, The Prince Charles Hospital, Metro North Hospital and Health Service
0810	Climate sensitive health risks - a climate scientist's perspective (15 mins) Professor Jean Palutikof, Adjunct Professor of climate change at Griffith University and Founding Director of the National Climate Change Adaption Research Facility (NCCARF)
0825	Climate change and projected health service demand (10 mins) Lachlan Mortimer, Director Health Service Research Analysis and Modelling (HSRAM), System Planning Branch, Clinical Planning and Service Strategy, Queensland Health
0835	Operational preparedness to manage future climate related demands (10 mins) Andrew Bryett, A/Executive Director, Disaster Management Branch, Queensland Health
0845	Climate change: Implications for Children's Health in Queensland (15 mins)% Professor Peter Sly, Director, Children's Health and Environment Program & Emeritus Paediatric Respiratory Physician, University of Queensland

0900

Climate sensitive health risks for infectious disease (15 mins)

Associate Professor Krispin Hajkowicz, Staff Specialist, Infectious Diseases, Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital, Metro North Hospital and Health Service

0915

Panel session (Facilitator: A/Prof Jeffrey Rowland) (15 mins)

- Professor Jean Palutikof, Adjunct Professor of climate change at Griffith University and Founding Director of the National Climate Change Adaptation Research Facility (NCCARF)
- Lachlan Mortimer, Director, System Planning Branch, Queensland Health
- Andrew Bryett, Executive Director, Disaster Management Branch, Queensland Health
- Professor Peter Sly, Director, Children's Health and Environment Program & Emeritus Paediatric Respiratory Physician, University of Queensland
- Associate Professor Krispin Hajkowicz, Staff Specialist, Infectious Diseases, Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital, Metro North Hospital and Health Service

0930

Groupwork activity (Facilitators: A/Prof Jeffrey Rowland / Professor Ian Scott) (25 mins)

0955

Recommendations challenge via Mentimeter (25 Mins)

Dr Tanya Kelly, Chair, Queensland Clinical Senate

1020

Morning tea

Session two: The healthcare system's contribution to climate change

Session Facilitator: Professor Ian Scott, Chair, Queensland Clinical Networks Executive, Queensland Health

1040

Engaging health services in climate change - the Hunter New England approach (10 mins)

Dr Ramsey Awad, Executive Director, Infrastructure, Planning & Sustainability, Hunter New England Local Health District, New South Wales Health (via videoconference)

1050

The clinical imperative for change (15 mins)

Associate Professor Forbes McGain, Anaesthetist and Intensive Care Physician, Western Health, Melbourne and Associate Dean of Sustainable Healthcare (Medicine, Dentistry, and Health Sciences), University of Melbourne (via videoconference)

1105

Reducing the environmental impact of health care by limiting low value care (10 mins)

Associate Professor Katy Bell, Clinical Epidemiologist & Health Services Researcher, School of Public Health, University of Sydney (via videoconference)

1115 Good health is good for the planet (10 mins)
Dr Nicole Sleeman, General Practitioner, Member of Doctors for the Environment Australia

1125 Panel - Questions and answers from participants – open mic (Facilitator: Professor Ian Scott) (20 mins)

- Dr Ramsey Awad, Executive Director, Infrastructure, Planning & Sustainability, Hunter New England Local Health District, New South Wales Health (via videoconference)
- Associate Professor Forbes McGain, Anaesthetist and Intensive Care Physician, Western Health, Melbourne and Associate Dean of Sustainable Healthcare, University of Melbourne (via videoconference)
- Associate Professor Katy Bell, Clinical Epidemiologist & Health Services Researcher, School of Public Health, University of Sydney (via videoconference)
- Dr Nicole Sleeman, General Practitioner, Member of Doctors for the Environment Australia
- Bettina McMahon, Chief Executive Officer, Healthdirect Australia

1145 Groupwork / feedback (Facilitator: Professor Ian Scott) (30 mins)

1215 Lunch (45 mins)

Session three: A silver lining: examples of great things that are already happening

Session Facilitator: Dr Kellie Stockton, Executive Director, Allied Health, Metro South Hospital and Health Service, Queensland Health

1300 Working with the NHS to deliver Net Zero (including sustainable buildings) (15 mins)
David Crowley, Asia-Pacific Healthcare Lead, Queensland Strategic Advisory Lead, Mott MacDonald
Dr Anne Kovachevich, Sustainable Buildings and Precincts Lead, Mott MacDonald

1315 The Children's Health Queensland experience – the clinician's perspective (10 mins)
Renaë McBrien, Sustainability Consultant, Children's Health Queensland

1325 SWAPNet (Statewide Anaesthesia and Perioperative Clinical Network) environmental accountability (10 mins)
Karen Hamilton, Principal Project Officer, Healthcare Improvement Unit, Queensland Health

1335

Panel session (Facilitator: Dr Kellie Stockton) (25 mins)

- David Crowley, Asia-Pacific Healthcare Lead, Queensland Strategic Advisory Lead, Mott MacDonald
- Dr Anne Kovachevich, Sustainable Buildings and Precincts Lead, Mott MacDonald
- Renae McBrien, Environment Consultant, Children's Health Queensland
- Karen Hamilton, Principal Project Officer, Healthcare Improvement Unit, Queensland Health
- Irene Mewburn, Consumer Representative

1400

Integrated sustainable community developments (15 mins)

Brooke Walters, Director, Sustainable Futures Economic Development Queensland

Melissa Argent, Chief Executive Officer, Rockpool Residential Aged Care

1415

Open Mic (Facilitator: Dr Kellie Stockton) (20 mins)

Examples of great things that are already happening

1435

Silver linings recommendations challenge (20 mins)

1455

Closing summary: where to from here?

Dr Tanya Kelly, Chair, Queensland Clinical Senate

1510

Meeting close